Note: January 2022 year over year calculations include January 2021 as the historical period of comparison. Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, employment estimates for almost every industry across Arizona in January 2021 recorded larger than average single-month declines. With January 2021 as the comparison point, as the state recovers jobs, employment estimate increases for January are atypically large.

<sup>2</sup> Includes private sector education only.

Annual Benchmarking Revisions (CES - Establishment Survey Data)

Once a year, the U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) Current Employment Statistics (CES) program revises its historical employment series for states prior to the release of the January estimates. The CES employment series is revised using detailed employment data produced through the Office of Economic Opportunity's Quarterly Census of Employment and Wages (QCEW) program. QCEW data provides a quarterly count of all employment subject to unemployment insurance tax law. This covers approximately 92% to 95% of total U.S. jobs. Information on the remaining 5% to 8% of employment is obtained from other sources, and the QCEW data is adjusted to obtain a count of total employment within the state.

The process of revising the CES employment series using QCEW employment series is called benchmarking, and the new CES employment figures are often referred to as benchmarked data. Not all of the historical CES data series can be replaced with QCEW data because of the significant lag between the data collection period and publication period that QCEW data is subject to. For periods in which QCEW data are not yet available, CES estimates are recalculated using the latest QCEW data available along with CES sample data.

During this benchmarking period, QCEW data were available through September 2021. Arizona and sub-state area CES employment estimates were revised using QCEW employment estimates from October 2020 through September 2021. For the periods that QCEW data were not available (October 2021 through December 2021), CES employment estimates were recalculated using CES survey data and updated QCEW data through September 2021. In addition, small historical corrections were incorporated into the data from January 1990 to September 2020.

The revised 2020 annual average employment for Arizona was 2,853,500 jobs, an upward revision of 3,200 jobs or 0.1% (see Figure 5). The 2020 year-over-year change in Nonfarm employment was revised to -3.0% post-benchmark from -3.1% pre-benchmark. The revised 2021 annual average employment for Arizona was 2,957,600, an upward revision of 12,500 jobs or 0.4% (see Figure 6). The 2021 year-over-year change in Nonfarm employment was revised to 3.8% post-benchmark from 3.3% pre-benchmark.

Under Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 (Title VI & VII), and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990 (ADA), Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, and the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, the Department prohibits discrimination in admissions, programs, services, activities, or employment based on race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age, and disability. The Department must make a reasonable accommodation to allow a person with a disability to take part in a program, service or activity. For example, this means if necessary, the Department must provide sign language interpreters for people who are deaf, a wheelchair accessible location, or enlarged print materials. It also means that the Department will take any other reasonable action that allows you to take part in and understand a program or activity, including making reasonable changes to an activity. If you believe that you will not be able to understand or take part in a program or activity because of your disability, please let us know of your disability needs in advance if at all possible. To request this document in alternative format or for further information about this policy, contact the Department of Economic Security, Division of Developmental Disabilities ADA Coordinator at 602 542-6825 ; TTY/TDD Services: 7-1-1.
